2020 Professional Development Events Descriptions

AAP Exam Review (FULL DAY)

This session is designed for you to work with the experts! Bring your ACH questions to class. The AAP review course is an interactive course designed to prepare professionals for the Accredited ACH Professional Certification Exam. Included in this session will be a review of the Nacha file structure. A sample test will be provided. Whether you are studying to take the AAP certification test or just considering taking this step toward your professional career, you will want to enroll in this class.

9:00 AM—3:30 PM (Lunch provided)
6.6 AAP/APRP Continuing Education Credits

ACH Audit & Compliance Workshop

How do your compliance procedures stack up? Regulators, Nacha and external examiners are taking a closer look at financial institutions' ACH procedures & risk management. If you aren't prepared for a higher risk of fines for noncompliance, be sure to prepare for an up-to-date ACH audit. We will go over a risk assessment, regulatory compliance, guide you through an ACH audit, and also discuss best practices and the most common compliance problems. This will help you reduce your ACH risk from both receiving and originating ACH transactions.

9:00 AM—1:00 PM
4.5 AAP/APRP Continuing Education Credits

ACH for Customer/Member Service

Consistent training in electronic payments is critical to the success of any organization. Your Customer/Member Service Staff is often the first point of contact for account holder questions and inquiries. Can your service staff explain the ACH to your customers or members? Is your staff comfortable enough with their knowledge level to sell the safety, efficiency, convenience and cost savings associated with electronic payments? It's important they thoroughly understand the functionality of the ACH in order to provide excellent service to your account holders, especially when problems arise. This session provides an overview of the ACH network from a customer/member service point of view, including defining the participants and explaining the transaction flow. An overview of ACH applications and their corresponding rules and regulations will be presented to ensure a clear understanding of ACH problem resolution.

9:00 AM—1:00 PM
4.5 AAP/APRP Continuing Education Credits

ACH Fundamentals Workshop

This is a lecture-based seminar that starts from "ground zero" and provides foundational information on the ACH Network. Personnel new to ACH or with limited experience should attend.

9:00 AM—1:00 PM

Advanced ACH Rules Workshop: A Tour of the Rulebook (FULL DAY)

If you understand the ACH rules, you can solve ACH problems, reduce risk, ensure compliance and design efficient and effective operations. This seminar is a comprehensive review of the ACH rules including the components of the ACH file structure. Those who should attend are ACH operations staff, Compliance Officers, Auditors, Project Managers and individuals preparing for the AAP exam.

9:00 AM—3:30 PM (Lunch provided)
6 AAP/APRP Continuing Education Credits

Check Image Exchange Workshop (3 DAYS—Advanced Level)

If you work with check image exchange and need a deeper understanding, or if you are studying for the National Check Professional Certification (NCP), this 3-day course is intended for you. The instructor, Angie Smith, is one of the most knowledgeable individuals in the U.S. on this topic. This will be a fast-paced and comprehensive workshop covering all of the material necessary to become a check professional. Real-life scenarios will be provided to assist the participant in relating the training to daily tasks. With recent amendments to Regulation CC and Regulation J, and new indemnities in Regulation CC, there may be risk to institutions that are not current on these topics. This workshop is intended to cover all material necessary for the NCP exam, to address knowledge gaps in check payments and the related rules and regulations. If you have an intermediate to advanced background in checks and image exchange, this course will build on that knowledge and take you to the next level.

Day 1—9:00 AM—4:00 PM
Day 2—9:00 AM—4:00 PM
Day 3—9:00 AM—2:00 PM
(Lunch provided each day)
